GOMPERS DEFEATS M'BRIDE

ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE FEDERA-TION OF LABOR

LENNON AND M'CRAITH RE-ELECTED-DISCUS. SIONS AT YESTERDAY'S SESSION OF

session of the convention in Madison Square Garden Assembly Hall elected Samuel Gompers president by a majority of eighteen votes. Gompers received 1941 votes and John McBride 1,023.

Yesterday's session was a spirited one. The latter of sending fraternal delegates to the Intertional Congress of Socialist Workers in London August was laid on the table, this action being there was a lively discussion on the question of ting a political platform. The delegates who adopting a political platform. The delegates who favored taking action on political issues urged the adoption of the twelve planks of the Denver convention. The result was that a resolution of Delegate Pomeroy declaring that the Federation has no political platform was adopted. The Socialists and a political platform.

The election of officers was held at 3 p. m. Gompers and McBride were the only candidates for the presidency. The former was nominated by Delegate Feuracht and the latter by Second Vice-President Duncan. When the result, as given previously, was announced, there was great applause. Mr. Gompers made a speech of thanks, and the retiring president spoke highly of this successor. Peter J. McGufre was chosen first vice-president without opposition. James Duncan was re-elected second vice-president, defeating C. F. Relchers by a majority of 627. The place of third vice-president went to James O'Connell, the other candidates being R. Konehan and C. P. McCambridge. M. M. Garland was chosen fourth vice-president, defeating G. H. Diehl, W. D. Mahon and Henry C. Baxter, John B. Lennon was unanimously re-elected treasurer, and Augustus McCraith was chosen to serve again as secretary.
